The Bidding Prayer, Lord's Prayer and Grace

Rector Beloved in Christ, at this Christmastide let it be our care and delight to hear again the message of the angels, and in heart and mind go even unto Bethlehem and see this thing which is come to pass, and the Babe lying in a manger.

Therefore let us read and mark in Holy Scripture the tale of the loving purposes of God from the first days of our disobedience unto the glorious Redemption brought us by this Holy Child.

But first, let us pray for the needs of the whole world; for peace on earth and goodwill among all his people; for unity and brotherhood within the Church he came to build, and especially in this our diocese.

And because this would rejoice his heart, let us remember, in his name, the poor and helpless, the cold, the hungry, and the oppressed; the sick and them that mourn, the lonely and the unloved, the aged and the little children; all those who know not the Lord Jesus, or who love him not, or who by sin have grieved his heart of love.

Lastly, let us remember before God all those who rejoice with us, but upon another shore, and in a greater light, that multitude which no man can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom in the Lord Jesus we are one for evermore.

These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up to the Throne of Heaven, in the words which Christ himself hath taught us:

All Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done; On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

Rector The Almighty God bless us with his grace: Christ give us the joys of everlasting life: and unto the fellowship of the citizens above may the King of Angels bring us all.

All Amen.

- The People may be seated.

Invitatory Up! good Christen folk, and listen G. R. Woodward
(1848-1934)

*Up! Good Christen folk, and listen how the merry church bells ring, and from steeple bid good people come adore the new-born King:
Tell the story how from glory God came down at Christmastide, bringing gladness, chasing sadness, showering blessings far and wide, born of mother, blest o'er other, Ex Maria Virgine,
in a stable ('tis no fable), Christus natus hodie.*

The First Lesson: Genesis 3:8-19

God tells sinful Adam that he has lost his life of Paradise and that his seed will bruise the serpent's head.

Reader: Miss Katherine Wright, Deputy Head Chorister, St. Cecilia Girls' Choir

Carol Adam lay ybounden Boris Ord (1897-1961)

*Adam lay ybounden, bounden in a bond:
four thousand winter thought he not too long.
And all was for an apple that he took,
as clerkes finden written in their book.
Ne had the apple taken been,
ne had never our lady a been heavnè queen.
Blessed be the time that apple taken was.
Therefore we moun singen Deo gracias!
[15th Century]*

The Second Lesson: Genesis 22:15-18

God promises to faithful Abraham that in his seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed.

Reader: Mrs. Nancy Jackson, Good Shepherd parishioner, a representative of Good Shepherd Altar Guild and the Lexington Connection, which handles details for Good Shepherd's Choir Tours

Carol Drop down, ye heavens Heathcote Statham (1889-1973)

*Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness:
let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation,
and let righteousness spring up together.
Mercy and truth are met together:
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
Truth shall flourish out of the earth:
and righteousness hath looked down, down from heaven.
Alleluia!*

[Text: Isaiah 45: 8, Psalm 85:10-11]

- The People stand and sing:

Hymn 72 Hark! the glad sound Richmond
(Descant: Lang)

- All are seated.

The Third Lesson: Isaiah 9:2, 6-7

The prophet foretells the coming of the Saviour.

Reader: Dr. Everett McCorvey, Director of Opera and Lexington Opera Society Endowed Chair in Opera Studies, University of Kentucky

Anthem Never weather-beaten sail Charles Wood (1866-1926)

*Never weather-beaten sail more willing bent to shore, never tired pilgrims limbs affected slumber more,
than my weary sprite now longs to fly out of my troubled breast:
O come quickly, sweetest Lord, and take my soul to rest!
Ever blooming are the joys of heaven's high Paradise,
Cold age deafe not there our ears nor vapour dims our eyes:
Glory there the sun out-shines; whose beams the Blessed only see:
O come quickly, glorious Lord, and raise my sprite to thee!*
[Text: Thomas Campion 1567-1620]

The Fourth Lesson: Isaiah 11:1-4

The peace that Christ will bring is foreshown.

Reader: Mr. Ray Larson, Good Shepherd parishioner and Fayette County Commonwealth's Attorney

Carol The Lamb (1982) John Tavener (b. 1944)

*Little Lamb, who made thee? Dost thou know who made thee?
Gave thee life, and bid thee feed by the stream and o'er the mead;
Gave the clothing of delight, Softest clothing, wooly bright;
Gave thee such a tender voice, Making all the vales rejoice?
Little lamb, who made thee? Dost thou know who made thee?
Little Lamb, I'll tell thee, Little Lamb, I'll tell thee:
He is called by thy name, For he calls himself a Lamb.
He is meek, and he is mild, He became a little child.
I, a child, and thou a lamb, We are called by his name.
Little Lamb, God bless thee! Little Lamb, God bless thee!*
[Text: William Blake, 1757-1827]

The Fifth Lesson: St. Luke 1:26-35, 38

*The angel Gabriel salutes
the Blessed Virgin Mary.*

Reader: Mr. Jim Gray, Vice Mayor of Lexington

Carol A maiden most gentle Andrew Carter (b. 1939)

*A maiden most gentle and tender we sing:
Of Mary the mother of Jesus our King.
Ave Maria.
How blessed is the birth of her heavenly child,
Who came to redeem us in Mary so mild.*

*Ave maria.
The Arch-angel Gabriel foretold by his call
The Lord of all creation, and Saviour of all.*

*Ave Maria.
Three Kings came to worship with gifts rich and rare,
And marvelled in awe at the babe in her care.*

*Ave Maria.
Rejoice and be glad now this Christmas we pray;
Sing praise to the Saviour, sing endless 'Ave.'*

Ave Maria.

[Text: paraphrased from the Venerable Bede by Andrew Carter]

- The People stand and sing:

Hymn 92 On this day earth shall ring Personent hodie

- All are seated.

St. Luke tells of the birth of Jesus.

Reader: Ms. Juanita Betz Peterson, Good Shepherd parishioner and a representative of Good Shepherd's lectors

Spiritual Carol Mary had a baby arr. William L. Dawson (1899-1990)

*Mary had a Baby, My Lord!
Where was he born? Born in a manger.
Mary had a Baby born in a manger, My Lord!
What did they call Him? King Jesus.
Mary had a Baby, He was called "King Jesus."
He is called "King Jesus," "Mighty Counsellor," "King Emmanuel," Mighty God," "Everlasting Father," "Prince of Peace."
Mary had a Baby, My Lord!*

The Seventh Lesson: St. Luke 2: 8-16

The shepherds go to the manger.

Reader: Mrs. Joyce Roth, Minister of Visitors and Newcomers

Carol Here is the Little Door Herbert Howells (1892-1983)

*Here is the little door, lift up the latch, oh lift!
We need not wander more but enter with our gift; Our gift of finest gold.
Gold that was never bought nor sold;
Myrrh to be strewn about His bed;
Incense in clouds about His head;
All for the Child that stirs not in His sleep,
But holy slumber holds with ass and sheep.
Bend low about his bed, for each He has a gift;*

*See how His eyes awake, lift up your hands, O lift!
 For gold, He gives a keen-edged sword
 (Defend with it Thy little Lord!)
 For incense, smoke of battled red,
 Myrrh for the honoured happy dead;
 Gifts for His children, terrible and sweet;
 Touched by such tiny hands, and oh, such tiny feet.
 [Text: Francis Chesterton]*

- The People stand and sing:

Hymn 94* While shepherds watched their flocks by night Winchester Old (Descant: Willcocks)

- The People are seated.

Reader: John Linker, Organist/Choirmaster

Carol The Angels and the Shepherds Bohemian carol, Arr. C. H. Trevor

*Shepherds, O hark ye, glad tidings we bring,
 Peace and goodwill to the world now we sing;
 See in a manger Christ the Anointed,
 Whom for your Saviour God hath appointed.
 Alleluia
 In yonder manger behold now he lies,
 Whom angel voices foretold from the skies.
 Seeking thy mercy, we kneel before thee,
 Singing thy praises, humbly adore thee.
 Alleluia.
 Still through the ages the song doth resound,
 Peace and goodwill on the earth shall abound.
 Bear we the tidings to every nation,
 Born is the Chirst Child for man's salvation.
 Alleluia.
 [Text: Adapted from Helen A. Dickinson]*

- All stand for the reading of the Ninth Lesson and the singing of the hymn that follows.

- Following the Hymn the People kneel.

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Priest Let us pray.

The Collect for Christmas Eve

O God, who makest us glad with the yearly remembrance of the birth of thy only Son, Jesus Christ: Grant that as we joyfully receive him for our Redeemer, so we may with sure confidence behold him when he shall come to be our Judge; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Blessing

May he who by his Incarnation gathered into one things earthy and heavenly, fill you with the sweetness of inward peace and goodwill; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

- The People remain kneeling as the Choir sings:

Motet

O magnum mysterium

Morten Lauridsen (b. 1943)

O magnum mysterium et admirabile sacramentum, ut animalia viderent Dominum natum, jacentem in praesepeio! O beata virgo, cujus viscera meruerunt portare Dominum Jesum Christum. Alleluia!

O great mystery, and wondrous sacrament, that animals should see the new-born Lord lying in their manger! Blessed is the Virgin whose womb was worthy to bear the Lord Jesus Christ. Alleluia!
